(b) if so, when such appointments/nominations are likely to be made;

(c) how many such non-officials have been appointed|promoted during 1981 to 1985;

(d) what are the criteria adopted for the appointment to the above posts; and

(e) what are the duties and functions of the Directors|Managing Directors and Chairmen of nationalised banks?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) Yes, Sir. As on date, no nationalised bank is without a Chairman & Managing Director. The process of selecting suitable persons for filling up the vacancies of non-official directors on the boards of nationalised banks is under way.

(c) and (d) Year-wise break-up of number of non-official directors appointed on the Boards of nationalised banks during the period from 1981 to 1985 is given below:—

Year	No. of non-official directors
1981	..
1982	159
1983	1
1984	8
1985	..

Appointment of non-official directors on the boards of nationalised banks is made in accordance with the criteria for selection and procedure laid down under clause 3 of Nationalised Banks (Management & Miscellaneous Provisions) Schemes, 1970 and 1980.

(e) Chairmen and Managing Directors of nationalised banks are required to function in terms of the provisions of the Nationalised Banks (Management and Miscellaneous Provisions) Schemes, 1970 and 1980 and their duties inter-alia include, presiding over the meetings of the Board, exercise such powers and discharge such duties as may be delegated to them by the Board and devote their whole-time to the affairs of nationalised banks.

In terms of Sections 7(2) of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970 and 1980, the general superintendence, direction and management of the affairs and business of a nationalised bank vest in the Board of Directors. As members of the Board of Directors, the non-official Directors also have to share the collective responsibility of directing the affairs of respective nationalised banks.

Tax arrears of film stars

2473. DR. SHYAM SUNDAR MOHAPATRA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether regular raids are conducted in the houses of defaulting film stars to realise tax arrears; and

(b) what are the names of the defaulting film stars (male and female) along with their tax liabilities at present and what action has been taken to realise the same?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) When any specific information about tax evasion is received, appropriate action is taken under relevant Direct Taxes Act.

(b) The names of film personalities against whom Income-tax demands exceeding Rs. 1 lakh were outstanding as on 31.3.1985 are given in the annexed statement, along with the demands outstanding. However, no demand of Wealth-tax was outstanding against such persons as on 31.3.1985.

Depending upon the facts and circumstances of each case, appropriate steps are taken from time to time by the concerned authority for recovery of the outstanding demand. These steps include inter-alia: requesting the Appellate Authorities for expeditious disposal of the pending appeals and also resorting to proceedings under sections 226(3) and 179 of the Income-tax Act and attachment of movable and immovable property after issuing the recovery certificates to the Tax Recovery Officer under section 222 of the Income-tax Act.
